

Who is the Peace in the City
Colloquium for?

Community Development
Facilitators

Urban Practitioners

Church Leaders

Students and Researchers

Justice and Peace
Activists

International and Domestic NGOs

Hosted by

WYCLIFFE
COLLEGE

Want to build a city? Join us Feb 19-21!

Peace in the City Colloquium

February 19-21, 2014

Wycliffe College

5 Hoskin Ave, Toronto, ON

Visit our website: peaceinthecity.org

Do you advocate, work, seek, study and pray for your community's transformation? Are you a leader, pastor, practitioner or student aiming for "Peace in the City?" This gathering is a space for listening, dialogue and learning among those compelled by the possibilities of peace and reconciliation. Bring your experience and questions, and join NGO experts, researchers, non-profit and church leaders to reflect and innovate around good practices in justice and community development in our rapidly urbanizing world.

Schedule:

Wednesday, February 19 | 6pm-9pm

Storytellers Panel and Story Café

Sharing our narratives of conflict, peace and hope.

In partnership with and with support from

URBANREMIXED

Thursday, February 20 | 9am-5:30pm

Making Sense of Peace and Conflict

Provocative plenaries by Matt Scott and Mark Vander Vennen. Plus an excellent selection of workshops.

Friday, February 21 | 9am-3pm

Equipping Community Practitioners

Choose from three half-day training tracks, plus a joint learning summit.

"Peace in the City" reflections and liturgies will be woven throughout.

Cost:

$200 per person OR only $175 early bird
$100 student rate OR only $75 early bird

Take advantage of early bird pricing until January 31st!

Includes lunches, snacks, coffee breaks and access to learning resources.

Student bursaries are available - ask!

Register Now!

Further questions?

Visit our website: peaceinthecity.org

Email us: wycliffeserves@wycliffe.utoronto.ca