

THORNELOE UNIVERSITY

AT LAURENTIAN

Assistant Chaplain
Fielding Memorial Chapel of St. Mark
Thorneloe University at Laurentian
Sudbury, Ontario

The Fielding Memorial Chapel of St. Mark at Thorneloe University, an Anglican academic institution federated with Laurentian University in Sudbury, Ontario, is seeking a part-time Assistant Chaplain (10 hours per week during the academic year [September-April]). While ordination is not a requirement, this person must be an Anglican who can bring to the position an innovative vision of Christian ministry within a university context. In particular, the Assistant Chaplain must:

- provide a pastoral presence in Thorneloe and on the Laurentian campus during the academic term;
- be available to residents, faculty and staff for counseling, when requested;
- be responsible for planning and leading regular services in the Chapel;
- periodically meet with the Chaplain, who is the President and Provost of the University; and
- assist the Chaplain in the leadership of Chapel services, when requested.

Interested candidates should send their resume and cover letter, along with the contact information and names of three references, to:

The Rev. Robert Derrenbacker, Ph.D.
President and Provost
Thorneloe University at Laurentian
935 Ramsey Lake Rd.
